MISSION FOCUS

NANCY POTTER

Asian Pacific Rim Peoples

For years, IMB worker Nancy Potter traveled to teach health-care classes in an impoverished Muslim village in Southeast Asia where Sela and her husband, Sok, live. One morning, Sela stumbled and spilled a pot of boiling water over her baby. Because her village is hours away from the nearest hospital, she had no one to call for help. But when Nancy came that same day she was able to rush Sela and her baby to a clinic where the burns could be treated. This clinic is run by Christians. Sela and Sok were amazed that Christians would care for them. As they learned more about the gospel, they began having dreams about Jesus and both put their faith in Christ. Nancy and her husband, William, have been working with local believers to engage this Muslim people group for approximately five years, and they are just beginning to see outreach efforts bear fruit.

PRAY God would continue to bring fruit from the efforts of Nancy and her team despite the challenges they face on the missions field.
