

Everyone wants to win. Is this statement accurate? I found myself pondering this thought over the last week. Winning is central around the Teal house. Every one of our girls was born with this innate desire to be the winner. It shows up in different ways. While one child will do ANYTHING and EVERYTHING to win at anything, another pushes herself to the point of exhaustion to be victorious. They get it honest. Their mother and I are guilty as well. We like to be the ones who finish first or get the last word in through every conversation. The gumption to win is a blessing and sometimes a difficulty to say the least. It might be appropriate today to ask what winning is and why it is important to us.

Winning, according to the dictionary, is gaining, resulting in, or relating to victory in a contest or competition. As I process this definition, I am reminded of the victory that we were reminded of just last Sunday, EASTER. The truth is that the most important win that ever occurred happened when Jesus conquered death, hell, and the grave by way of resurrection. Think about it with me for a second. What did this victory result in?

1 John 5:4 | For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith.

Deuteronomy 20:4 | For the Lord your God is he who goes with you to fight for you against your enemies, to give you the victory.

1 Corinthians 15:57 | But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

You see it? Our kids are starting to learn it. We are all winners! We are victorious because of Jesus. Unfortunately, we still have some battles to face in the days ahead. How do we continue to win, battle after battle? Paul gives us an idea in Philippians when he writes...

Philippians 4:13 | I can do all things through him who strengthens me.

Jesus will continue to strengthen you for the battles that will come. In the meantime, let's continue to prepare for victory. How do we do that? I'm so glad you asked. At the beginning of this year, we introduced seven W2's or Ways to Win in 2024. It is my hope as Pastor of FBC Barnesville that we will all prayerfully and boldly step into one or all of the W2's over the course of the year as we desire to have our faith strengthened by Jesus. Which W2 will you practice this week?

- We will win as a church when everyone joins in on our scripture memory journey by memorizing our monthly passage.
- We will win as a church when everyone connects with a Sunday School Class or Small Group.
- We will win as a church when everyone volunteers at the church in some capacity this year.
- We will win as a church when everyone participates in at least 1 missional opportunity provided by FBC Barnesville.
- We will win as a church when everyone leads 1 person to become a regular attender at FBC.
- We will win as a church when everyone chooses to give the tithe a try.

REMEMBER, you are loved!

Pastor Jason

<sup>8</sup>Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. <sup>9</sup>We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. <sup>10</sup>For the death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God. <sup>11</sup>So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

— Romans 6:8-11
