MISSION FOCUS

Sean & Natalie Beaudoin La Mesa, California

Sean Beaudoin was serving as an associate pastor when God called him to church planting. After a 21-day fast and much prayer, he and his wife, Natalie, started Hope Church San Diego in February 2023. Bordered by seven cities and home to a mix of socioeconomic backgrounds, La Mesa is a vibrant, multiethnic community in need of new churches. The community is a melting pot, with students, low-income families, and affluent residents. Sean described the impact of the church as contagious. Jaime and Blanca are a great example of this. They came to the church and took part in its discipleship program and premarital counseling. As they pursued a relationship with Christ, they brought their family to the church. Today 15 of their family members attend the church and are plugged into different ministries.

PRAY: Pray that God would help Hope Church San Diego faithfully disciple new believers. People who have recently come to faith in Jesus make up nearly 80 percent of the church.
