MISSION FOCUS

Dave & Amy Knotts
Central Asian Peoples

Technology has transformed missions work since Dave and Amy Knotts posted their first social media ad seven years ago. The International Mission Board missionaries laugh now at its simplicity—a black screen with white text asking, “Do you want to read the Bible in your language?” Though basic, the ad was highly effective, leading to 2,500 downloads of language-specific Scripture within 24 hours. This success prompted the Knotts to dive deeper into digital engagement strategies to reach some of the least reached people in Central Asia. “With digital engagement, we can reach places we can’t normally go,” Dave explained. Many unengaged, unreached people groups live in isolated areas or countries where Christianity is banned. Yet social media and digital platforms can penetrate even these restricted areas. When someone responds to an ad, a team of believers fluent in the language and familiar with the culture is ready to engage in gospel conversations. These interactions can lead to discipleship and sometimes even connect individuals to a local faith community.

We will win as a church when everyone leads one person to become a regular attender at FBC. Pray this week that God will show you someone to invite to worship & into our family.
