MISSION FOCUS

Asa & Vanessa Watson
European Peoples

Asa and Vanessa Watson's openness and willingness to address tough questions about God and faith has fostered deep friendships and created opportunities for sharing the gospel. The Watsons, serving with the International Mission Board in Germany, provide a safe space for candid conversations by hosting people in their home. Many are curious about why they chose to live in Germany, especially given Asa's unique background. Asa played football for the New England Patriots and Dallas Cowboys and later worked for NASCAR, which often leaves people asking, "Why are you here?" The answer lies in a higher calling. God led the Watsons to serve overseas, and they moved to Frankfurt with their children. Asa's involvement in a local boxing gym has opened further doors. Training a light heavyweight boxer and sharing his NFL background allowed him to explain his family's mission in Frankfurt. This connection led to monthly worship services at the gym, part of the house church network they're involved with. The gym setting attracts around 60 attendees, including people who might not feel comfortable going to a traditional house church.

SERMON IN A SENTENCE

FBC WAYS TO WIN: GENEROSITY

We will win as a church when everyone chooses to give the tithe a try. Already giving a tithe? Consider increasing by 1%.
Pray that God would make generosity a natural reflex for you.
